

Sliding Door Maglock

Introduction

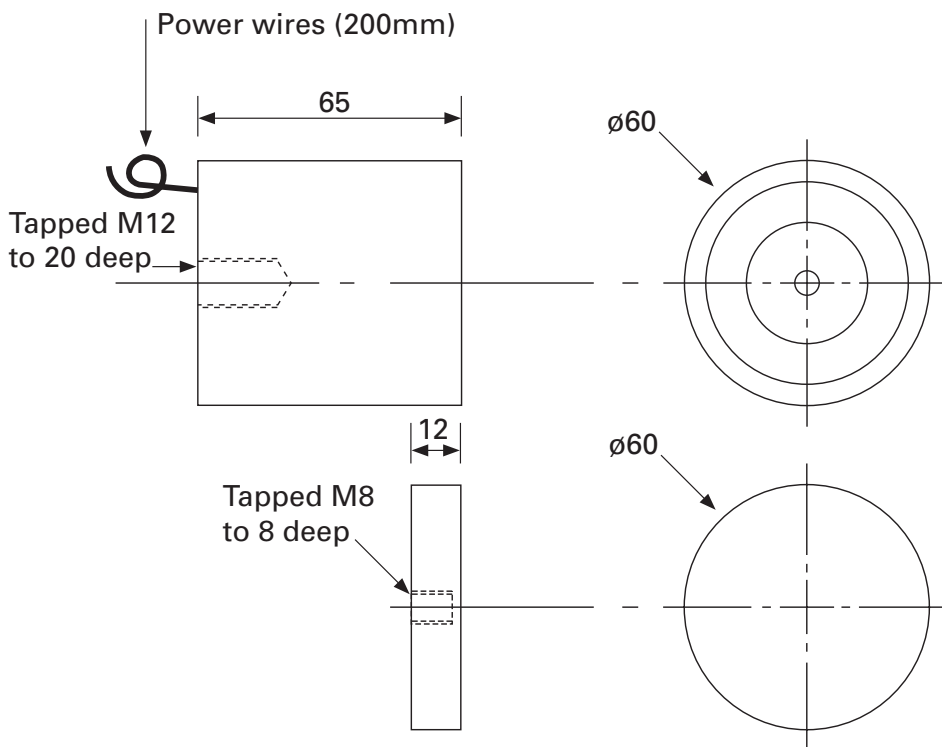

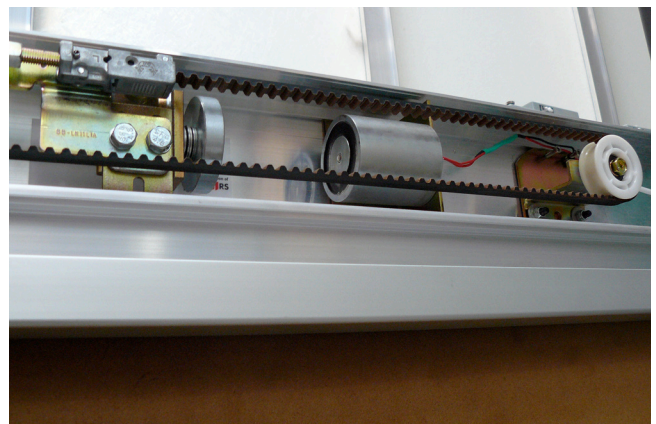

The Sliding Door Maglock is a medium security electronic locking device designed specifically for use with the CS Automated sliding door range.

When fitted into a track mounted armature mount bracket, the Maglock can be activated by PLC or other device to provide Hold Open or Hold Closed functionality.

Features

Model GPM60

- Mounting hole in base of magnet
- tapped M12 x 20mm deep
- Mounting hole in base of armature plate
- tapped M8 x 8mm deep
- 12V DC only @ 400mA
- 80kg holding force
- Zinc plated magnet face and armature disc
- Transient spike protection diode fitted externally
- Spring demagnetising push-off
- Armature mount bracket sold separately

5 - 7 Rakino Way
Mt Wellington, Auckland

T 09 276 0800
F 09 276 2525

E info@csfordoors.co.nz
W www.csfordoors.co.nz

Another quality product from:

